et down to dinner with him at one of the success of the inna is Dover, and I'll just tell you the manner of feeding.

It was sort of a skilling ordinary policy of food there was and some twenty or thirty feeders—each with a four ounce lump of head, by the side of his plate. You'll take some some Sir?—said somebody to the soup, Sir?—said somebody to the fit Franklin, said so. I'll take soup" said he, and did—three plates full, to-which he added the aforesaid four ounce lump of bread.—You'll take salmon,—and the fleet and at Shoumla.

The government of More some bread, waiter." The plate of The government of More some bread, waiter." some bread, waiter." The plate of bread was handed to him, and having jected the proposals and mediation of Sir?-'Yes-I'll take fried soles-and some fresh ale, waiter.' A quart jug of ale was set beside him and having ingulph'd a great goblet of it, he sent down a half pound of sole, and the fourth lump of bread after the sal-Here's a fine brill, Sir; will you sllow me to send you some?—
'Yes—I'll take some brill, and some bread waiter.' The plate of bread was again haaded to him, and having pawed off four lumps, down went one c: them with the brill, and another goblet of ale cleared his gullet for the second course.
Second course:—Roast beef, ross pig calf's head, and boiled leg of mut-Beef, sir?-Yes I'll take some beef; Champ, champ, champ, chamble, chamble, champ, and guip—guip—guip; and there was an end of the beef, and a third gobiet of ale. Some call's head sir?—Yes: I'll take call's head; slerrup slerrup chamble, champ, slerrup—gulp, gulp:' A little more call's head, sir!—"Yes, I'll take a little more calf's head; slerrup, sler-rup, bread, waiter—slerrup, slerrup, chamble, chamble, champ: gulp, gulp, gulp, gulp, and thus ended the second Third course:-Shall I send you the wing of this goose, sir?—Yes: I'll take the wing of a goose;'—and he did. Allow me to send you a slice two of the breast sir? take some of the breast; and he did. Some boil'd fowl and oysters sir 'Yes: I'll take some boiled fowl and oysters slerrup, slerrup, champ, champ champ stop waiter! where are you going with that duck! I shall take duck:'& haaving finished his boiled fowl and oysters, he helped duck. By this time his eyes stood out like a lobster's; the perspiration stood in large drops upon his bald front. But still he went on, champ, champ, champ, and fearing the pastry would be cleard away before he had finished his duck, he contrived to eat the solid slices from the breast with one side of his mouth whilst he knaw'd the meat from the leg with the other; the drumstick looking out from the corner of his nasty mouth,

To the inhabitants of Philadelphis, and of the United States of America in general, send greeting.

Friends and brethren -The Lord having in his Providence, raised up the politicist Methodist Connexion in Old Brigland, and made it an instrument in his hands, of turning thousands and in his hands, of turning thousands and tens of thousands unto righteousness, and many of its members having emigrated to the United States It was hidged providential to appoint a regular Mission; we have accordingly sent over our respected twethren and faithful ministers; the Reverend Wm. Sumeraides and the Rev. Thomas Morris, who have laboured with spacess, and wa trust they will be made useful in the Gospel of our common Lord; and object of Mr. Fenton's going to Shoum la: was to propose peace with the Turks, though but faint hopes are entertained of his being listened to.

1.3

Intelligence from Mayence states that the propositions between Prussia that the negotiations between Prussia and the Low Countries in relation to the free navigation of the Rhine had been closed, the King of Prussia have ing ratified the proposals made by the King of the Netherlands. It is said that the King of Prussia will visit his province on the Rhine during the Autumn, and that he will announce his as the famous Barclay de Tolly.

Athens has fallen into the hands of the Greeks by capitulation.

The arrival of the Ambassadors at Constantinople spread general jay.
The London Standard of the 17th

ult. says, that the King of Prussia had appointed an extraordinary Ambassadur to proceed immediately to Constanting le, to assist the other Ambassadors in The Princess of Leuchtenburgh, be-rothed to Don Pedro, was about to trothed to Don Pedro, was embark at Ostend for Brazil.

Gen. Lafayette was enjoying good health. He left Paris on the 20th July on a tour to Avergne his native depart

Mr. Brown would leave France in the packet of the 10th August, as Mrs. Brown's health had much improved. FALL OF SILISTRIA.

The Russian troops are marching or 'conquering and to conquer.' An early a division of Russian cavalry, immedia-consequence of the defeat of the Grand tely attacked it. The Russians retreated Vizier has been the fall of the impor- upon Rachova. It is said that if the tant fortress of Silistria, which so completely withstood the skill of the Muscovite during the last campaign. The the commander had not been deficient capitulation did not take place until in courage, the Russian General would the last moment of fruitless resistance have found it difficult to establish himthe last moment of futiless resistance had arrived; for after a succession of sallies, and fierce attacks of the besiegers, in which the besieged were always repulsed, the Turks surrendered Ottoman vessels laden with corn, on of entering by a breach opened through the walls of the fortress The following are all the particulars we have as yet received of this important event. Intelligence of the capture of Silis tria was transmitted by telegraph from Strasbourg to Paris on Friday night. from the corner of his nasty mouth, till it dropped completely picked upon his plate. Then, gulping down the remander of his ale, he tossed a glass of brandy after it; and asked for some damson tart; swallowed it in a twinkling; a fittle custard pudding.

Yes, Chesse? Yes and finally a hole. Yes. Cheese? Yes and finally a bottle of Sherry? Is it not monstrous, that a fellow like this, who will cram himself with more food than would serve a dozen moderate men, should obtrude his abominable paunch upon decent people, and get his overweight carried about from town to town for Mahmoud, both three tailed. Pachas. decent people, and get his overweight carried about from town to town for nothing.

Four delegates from the Primitive Methodist Connexion of England, and commonly called Assters, letely arrived at New York, namely. Win. Knowled at New York, and the two former remain in New-York, and the open former remain in New-York, and the two former remain in New-York, and the interest and the manifests great the following version of the and W. Summersides. The two former remain in New-York, and the two latter are now in this city. The following is a copy of their address to the people of the United States.

The Primitive Methodist Cennexion. inst. from Vienna, says, upon the same subject: 'I hasten to inform you that we have just received advices of the capture of Silistria, which surrendered by capitalation to the Russian army on the Soth of Jane.

The surrender of this furtress is an event of high importance, as it will hasten, and render almost certain the rall of Giurgevo and Rudschuck. Thus, with the exception of Widdin, against which undeubtedly fresh efforts will be successively directed, the whole line of the Danube is secured to the Bussians as the basis of their fulure operaions, and the war will, as if were, cease to have Bulgaria for its theatre. If it be continued, then it will be carried into the beart of the empire in Romelia. we trust they will be made useful in the Gospal of our common. Lord; and will meet with kindness and remisted aming 7901 that you writer similar circumstances would expect from useful cases. [Naf. Gas.]

The route from Sophia to Philopolis and especially upon the article which its reduced garrison, to be observed by a mumerous corps, several other roads assessment Black as Black man's District. Georgia, was lately brought before Justice Black-fore, charged with assaulting and beating one Mr. Brown, from whom he rectived a black eye.

In this manner they have learned that the Porte will not negetiate upon the Carlot of a few days, the Porte will not negetiate upon the passin of the Protocol signed at London, and especially upon the article which is negetially upon the article which requires the extension of the fronties of Greece from the Gall of Vole to that af Arts; so that they already foresting the way of expected that the Soltan will admit into his present the same difficulties in the way of expected that the Artis, so that they already foresting the pain of Adrianople to the fall of Miloservina; the Porte will not negetiate upon the basis of the Protocol signed at London, and the recuit of their visit to the expectally upon the article which has a few days.

The route from Sophia to Philopolis and especially upon the article which has a few days.

The route from Sophia to Philopolis of Greece from the Gall of Vole to that af Arts; so that they already foresting the way of expected that the Soltan will admit him his predicted the way of expected that the Soltan will admit him his predicted the way of expected that the Soltan will admit him his predicted that the Soltan will do an expectally upon the article which has a few days.

Barrell Porte will not negetiate upon the basis of the Protocol signed at London, and the requires the extension of the foresting the protocol signed at London, the protocol sign question the submission of Rutschuck, Giurgevo, &c. We learn from the Augsburgh Gazette.

king of the Netherlands. It is said that the King of Prussia will visit his province on the Rhine during the Autumn, and that he will announce his as sent to that navigation in person.

It is not generally known that the Russian General Diebitsch is under fifty years of age, a German by birth, a wolder by fortune, and son in law of the famous Barclay de Tolly.

We learn from the Augsburgh Gazette, that the Grand Vizier is collecting all the truops he cap at Chou ola, and hopes to be able to assemble 40,000 men with out weakening the garrison. All the men able to bear arms have departed for the Balkan; the Turks admit that the number of men and the artiflery lost by them in the battle of the 11th was very considerable. Some persons the number of men and the artillery lost by them in the battle of the 11th was very considerable. Some persons still flatter themselves with the hope of peace, and speak of agents having been sent to the Russian camp. Ali Pacha: it appears, was killed in the battle of the 11th. The Captain Pacha has not yet returned from the Black Sea. The Gazette gives another letter from Constantinople of the same date, which Gazette gives another letter from Con-stantinople of the same date, which say-Grand Vizier returned to Choumla after the battle of 11th June with the 6000 men of cavalry and 12,000 infantry. The Musselmans thrown into consternation by the first intelligence of the defeat, resumed courage hey learned that the mass of the army they learned that the mass of the army had returned into the camp. It was also represented to them that the loss of the Russians was very considerable.

Letters from Lesser Wallachia and nounces that after the occupation of Rachova by the troops of General Geis mar, the Pacha of Widdin reconnuitered the environs of that place, and meeting a division of Russian cavalry, immedia by a diplomatic note declarative of the Emperor's pacific intention.

'According to reports Count Pahlen intends to march with a corps from Silistria towards Rudschuck, in order to assist the corps of Baron Geismar, who is moving against that place. The Turks at Budschuck and Giurgevo have begun to send away their families and their property to Widdin. The Journal of St. Petersburgh of the 28th of June, gives an account of an attempt made by the Turks, to make ters of the Russian army, go much further than the official bulletins in their account of the complete route which the Grand Vizier's army sustained on the 11th, and during his subse quent retreat. These disasters had prepared the Turkish Government to hear of the fall of Siliatria, as we learn from advices dated Constantinople, Jane 26. It is stated under the same date, that the Ottoman Government takes great reare to impress upon the minds of the Turkish the Ottoman Government takes great the City of the tentorn of the French and English Ambaissatiors, in order to remove the effect produced by the unfavorable intelligence from the theatre sf war. Still, however, the Ambaissadors have not yet had an official interview with the Reis Effendi, but have endeavoured to have a confidential understanding with him upon the object of their mission.

In this manner they have learned that the Porte will not negotiate upon the basis of the Protocol signed at London, is and especially upon the article which is a contract of the course of a few days, and especially upon the article which is a contra has been resolved at Petersburgh. A single day has turned the tables. The single day has turned the tables. The tile success. According to advices dispersion of the corps d'elite. The dispersion of the corps d'elite. The surrender of Silistria, which is the first consequence of the defeat of the 11th June, in permitting Gen, Diebitsch to occupy Rasgaad, from whence he commands Schumla, has rendered beyond a manula Schumla, has rendered beyond a constitution the submission of Rutschuck, very probable. Giurgevo is atill block-spire. It is stated that the reason which has hindered the Pacha of E-ers from the Emperor to negotiate. Others, however, say that he is only sent to summon Schumla to surrender.

一一年 中一日本大学 新海市中门的时间 1111年

sent to aummon Schumla to surrender.

Berlin, July 3. Letters from the theatre of was represent the events near Schumla in a manner perfectly in accordance with the Russian Official Bulletin. The defeat of the Turkish army was so general, and the destruction so complete, that old soddiers do not remember a similar victory. The plan of General Deibitsch, though the execution of it required great efforts, its generally acknowledged to have been admirable. He led the Russian army between the enemy's army and their entrenched camp before Schumla. But a very small part of the Turkish troops. tely attacked it. The Russians retreated upon Rachova. It is said that if the Turkish garrison at that place previous to its capture had done their dure, and the commander had not been deficient the commander had not been deficient would be courage, the Russian General would in courage, the Russian General would reach, the field was covered with the courage, the Russian General would reach, the field was covered with the courage, the Russian General would reach, the field was covered with the courage, the Russian General would reach, the field was covered with the courage, the Russian General would reach, the field was covered with the courage, the Russian General would reach, the field was covered with the courage. the wreck of the enemy's army. In Schumla itself, there is but a small garrison, and the battle is considered as vesians by means of Congreve rocketa.

The following intelligence is dated Bank of the Danube, July 6th.—The victory gained over the Grand Vizier by General Diebitsch has been announced by Russia to all the Courts with which that power has friendly relations.

This communication ry important. Aiready on the second day after the battle. Schumla was alfight with admirable bravery. The Turkish army (though the Turks when ordered to attack, endeavour to lose all sense of danger in the most furious courage) wants presence of mind and reflection, and their condition throughout is very miserable. CONSTANTINOPLE, June 10 .- The Turkish fleet, much damaged, returned to Bujukdere on the 29th ult. having, on the 27th of that month, met and er gaged a division of the Russian one. It appears, however, that the Turkish gunpowder was found damp, and made no impression on their enemy, and therefore the Captain Pacha prudently al Burzeff, and the numerous mitting of Achmet Khan-Major General Prince Bebuteff, having ancertained that the enemy intend-ed to attack the fortress of Achaizich, with a considerable force which the Khan had assembled in the Sandshak General Burzoff against him in order, if possible, to disperse his troops, and thereby, delay the enterprise against Elhalzick, Gen. Burzoff immediately set off in search of the enemy, at the head of ten companies of infantry, five light field pieces, and 200 cossacks: on the way he learned that Aohmet Khan in expectation of reinforcements, had thrown himself into the Christian villa sent two Turkish Deputes in the rank to Gen. Diebitsch. Since their arrival at the Russian camp, a rumour prevailed that an armistice is negotiating; which, however, does not appearing; which, however, does not appearing; which, however, does not appearing; which, however, still blockaded; but nothing very important has taken place.

350

Among the causes which have always troubled the Turkish empire, and increased its weakness, must be reckoned the divisions between the several Pachas, and the jealousies which they included the Turkish that the reason of the force opposed to himfand the adspire. It is stated that the reason spire. It is stated that the reason of E-time the property of the force opposed to himfand the adspire. It is stated that the reason of E-time the property of the force opposed to himfand the adspired the pacha of E-time the property of the force opposed to himfand the adspired the property of the force opposed to himfand the adspired the property of the force opposed to himfand the adspired the property of the force opposed to himfand the adspired that the reason of the force opposed to himfand the adspired that the property of the force opposed to himfand the adspired that the reason of the force opposed to himfand the adspired that the reason of the force opposed to himfand the adspired that the reason of the force opposed to himfand the adspired that the reason of the sandshak of Ardaghan, in ges of the Sandshak of Ardaghan, i visable to venture an attack than to recommissioned to propose terms of whole of his forces, consisting of about peace, Count Diebitsch having full pow5000 infantry, without reckoning cavalry, but was soon repulsed, and forced, after suffering considerable loss, to seek shelter again behind his works. The

> Reis Effendi: but we are assured Porte will refuse to form a treaty bas-

From Shumla, we learn that the-Grand Vizier has assembled an army of 40,000 men without touching the garrison of the fortified places. The loss of the Turks in the affair of the 11th is estimated by themselves to be very considerable.

BUCHAREST, 26th June.-The corps de reserve, commanded by Gen. Tolsoi, have received orders to rejoin the army on the Danube. It is composed of thirty thousand men. Gen. Diesbitsch is Prom Kallarach the Grand Vizier has sent two Turkish officers to Gen. Diesbitsch to propose an armistice. It is doubtful whether this will be accept . Giurgevo is still blockaded.

Accounts from Semlin state that the Russians have failed in their attempt o cross the Danube in some places.

marked neglect, not even speaking when under the necessity of passing close to them. On the name of O'Connell being announced, he is said to have suffered some indecarous expressions to escape him. He manifests great aversion to all who were in any degree.

would appear, does not understand this policy. The question is, then, weller, the Dake be able to support himself on the mere strength of his popularity with the country, the copisequence of the general belief in his hossety, and disinterestedness; or whether he will be under the necessity of throwing him self into the arms of one of the two great parties in Parliament.

the Crown to throw would deserve to be universally fearted:

A general meeting of the unembry, ed silk weavers was held in London, so the 15th of June, to hear the answer the Duke of Wellington to the application of 4000 of their sames for means to emigrate in a body to Sena River, (New Bouth Wales.). The Duke answered that he had set the means at his disposal to defray the erpenses of transporting even a smaller means at his disposal to detray the ex-penses of transporting even a smaller number of people to that colony—much less so great a body. He deeply re-grets their distress but attributes the to causes over—high the transferrest have no controul. 39

The case of T. Watkins was brought to a close on Friday, 14th inst. The following is the sentence of the Count, In the indictment for 750 dollars: Fised 8750 and be imprisoned for thre calendar months from this 14th day of August, 1829. inclusive.
In the 300 dollar case: Fined 8300 and be imprisoned for three calendar months next following the termina-tion of his imprisonment under the sentence in the preceding case. In the 2000 dollar case: Vined $200 and to be imprisoned for three calradar months next following the traination of his imprisonment under the sentence in the next preceding case for $500. The sentence altogether, it will be perceived, is a fine of three the and fifty dollars, and nine mostis in prisonment from the 14th day of As

ASTONISHING PERFORMANCE

A Mr Miller of Glasgow, Scotlas, has executed a piece of fine writing; which it is said has never been equited. Within the compass of a silver sipence he has distinctly and beautifully written with a pen—the Lords praye, the creed, and the names of the book of the Old Testament, the names of the books of the New Testament, the it tribes of Israel, our Saviour's 12 appettes, the 7 wonders of the world, the mechanical powers, the 7 priming colours, the 5 senses, the 12 months of the year, the names of the govern, A Mr Miller of Glasgow, Scotlad, the year, the penses, the exmount of the year, the names of the governs, deputy-governor, secretary, and solotor of the bank of England, the writer name and age, and having in the middle a drawing of the Glasgow cityan.

The Pair Sex in olden time-life reign of Henry VIII. Sir A. Fither hert. Judge of the Court of Conne. Pleas, wrote a Treatise entitled to Book of Husbandry. from which to following is extracted; 'It is a visit of the court of the co occupation to wynowe all man ENGLAND.

The Ministry.—The King is said to wringe, to make heye, shere consumers of Catholic emancipation, and at a late levue treated the Duke of Nonrolk and Lord Jerricona, with heye, corne and such other. As a base of the parket is not even another to set butter to set butter.

eating in the same position, and disting the health of his spectators!

VALUABLE RECIPES. To make Cement or Broken Gha

Take one ounce of isengles, sho in half a pint of spirits of what twenty four hours, then let it disa over a slow fire, always keeping to ereil, or the apirits will evaporate take six cloves of garlice braise well in a mortar, put them in its cluth, and squeeze the sice ist identification in the state of net Makerts Guide

GINGER BEER Take of loaf sugar's the White giftger bruised i es. ANNAPOLIS:

Thursday, Angust 27, 1829. THE COMMUNICATION avoidably postponed, until our next.

The Jackson convention of the city of Baltimore have nominated LATROBE, Esqrs. as candidates to represent that city in the next General Assembly of this State.

We are authorised to announce CHARLES D. WARFIELD, Esq. as Dandidate to represent Anne Arun-del county, in the popular branch of the next Legislature.

ed as a candidate for a seat in the next Legislature of Marylay. To the Voters of Anne Arundel County.

Gentlemen, I offer myself to your considerati on, to represent you in the next General Assembly of Maryland.

JOHN'S SELLMAN.

Mn. GREEN,
You are authorised to announce ROBERT WELCH, of Bon. as a can-gober tweeters Anne Arandel coun-ity in the first General Assembly, and that he will be supported by that he will be supported by To the Voters of Anne Arundel County. I offer myself as a Candidate to re-present you in the next General Assembly.

ABNER LINTHICUM, Sen.

For the Maryland Gazette. Far, far from the laid which give me my birth, Frendless an outeast, I wanter forliers, the relations have I on this write spreading earth
They, by Death, from me, have been tiers—

ing fixed.

The last of my race—the last of my line—

The storms of this world, I will most and defy,

Zast of my kinded—the hast of my kind—

Contented and happy, a Christian I'll de—

LOGAN. SWEARINGEN CONVICTED. A slip from the Cumberland Advocate office, under date of 22d inst. says:- "The trial of George Swearingen, for the murder of his ow wife, in this county, on the 8th day of September 1-st, was closed this day at 4 o'clock, P. M. after a patient and laborious session of three weeks. The Jury retired to their room about ten minutes, when it re-turned into court and rendered a verdiet of "Guilty of Murder in the first degree.' The Pensacola Gazette announces that the U. S. schooner Shark, capt. Vorhees, arrived at that port on the vomees, arrived at that port on the last inst. The Shark, with one of the large barges attached to the station, has been for the last three months eruizing on the South side of Cuba, and has been able to give the coast a diligent, easily Cant. V. coast a diligent search. Capt. V. reports with confidence that there are no pirates at present on the south side of the Island. On the 20th July, Capt Voorhees understood at Trinidad, that letters had that day been received from Vera Cruz, stating that our Minister, without manure Mr. Poinset had been assassinated, tending than by at the city of Mexico. This report was generally believed at Trinidad.

The Officers and Crew of the Shark have enjoyed excellent health, results of the common. A result 1930 has although much exposed on the coast of Cuba.

The United States' ship Ontaria, under the cummand of Thomas Holdup and large fram rapidly. Mr. Stavens, Baq. went to see this morning. She is bound to the Mediterrahean, and carries out Mr. IL Loc, the Consul General to Algiers, who, with Mrs. Lee, went on board vesteriay.

N. Y. Amer. of Friday.

Prom the New York Daily Advertiser

From the New York Daily Advertiser.

Frequent complaints have been made of the condect of the masters of steamboats, in landing passengers in small boats without stopping their engines, and their photos without stopping their engines, and their passend of the sessed of the small thereby endingering their lives.

It may be nieful to let the public, as well as these who may be more immediately interested, know in what light attributes the complaint of this know was laiely brought before, the Lord Meyor of London, against the master of a steam-boat, when the facts appeared to be as followed the boat, was fon her passage from Grafessed in London. Being off a masting place, the segment was stopped, and a meaning place the segment was stopped, and a meaning place, the segment was stopped, and a meaning place, the segment was given by the main at the gangwey, that tall was thou, I have the small beat, the word was given by the main at the gangwey, that tall was thou. I have blame open the man but the Lord Mayor had been upset and in that case certain master would have a siaughter, and have the laws of Eagla try, but this subject, the same; and if so, CHARLES D. WARFIELD, Baq. as life in this mode wur del county, in the popular branch of the next Legislature.

Mr. Charles,
You are authorised to state; that HORATIO RIDUUT will be supported as a caudidate for a seat in the next Legislature of Marylay. the risk of such a per is often incurred in ner, and under exki does not alter the nor will it change the ment.

Handsome Present

Mr. SOMESSET R genious Mechanic constructed and pre-dent of the United of wood. This bea cabinet work is der Waters, THE AM is brother mechani practical friend to
We subjoin Mr.
Gen Jackson, give the emblematical of vith the General's

Three Springs
Frederick county
Dear Sir—Pleas
pative of Maryland Jones) this Americ of respect. It is of four kinds of wood teen, namely—Bo Black Oak, Chesnu Locust, Walnut, Maple, Ivy, Cherrioside of eleven, vlar, Ash, Apple, Yellow Pine, reprince States. The inds and unites t HICKORY, emblen With great res

To Gen. Ands Washin Dear Sir-The leased to presen Jones. was received sure. I bey you sincere thanks for that so ingenious ship would be his without that emb flattering to my of Government whitender, and I the people of the I have the Mar respect, your ob Mr. SOMERSI -- [7 ILLINON Illingis, gives at of cornsperacre man. Many f. leisure will be · COUNT We were ye

Miss Paanos